

A Proverbs 31

Prayer

Lord,

Teach me to be a woman of virtue and noble character, which is worth more than rubies.

*May my family have full confidence in me, and lack nothing of value.
Help me to bring them good, not harm, all the days of my life.
Give me the strength to provide for the needs of my family.*

*Teach me to open my arms to the poor and extends my hand to the needy.
During times of change, I will have no fear for my household; for all of them are clothed in warmth and love.*

*I am clothed with strength and dignity, and I can laugh at the days to come!
Teach me to speak with wisdom, and may faithful instruction be on my tongue.*

Help me to diligently watch over the affairs of my household, and to not eat the bread of idleness.

May my family arise and call me blessed.

Teach me to be a woman who honors and reveres your name.

Amen.
