

A Prayer

for Students in

Tenth Grade

Lord,

Lord, I lift students in the tenth grade up to you in prayer today. Bless them as they seek out the direction you have for their lives. As they explore the best options for their future, give them wisdom through your Holy Spirit to guide them into all truth. May they seek your Word, and the counsel of their parents and other wise adults who can give them encouragement and sound advice.

Amen.