

A Prayer

for Students in

Fifth Grade

Lord,

I pray for fifth grade students today. Give them diligence and persistence as they start the school year. Help them to remain focused and excited for the new things they will learn each day. Give them wisdom to make the right decisions and to encourage their peers to do what is honoring and pleasing to you. Help them to discover new things in your world with joy and wonder.

Amen.